Insights

As we review December's data, we inevitably reflect on the end of the calendar year while also marking the halfway point of our fiscal year. It can be striking to look at our year-over-year trends, especially with much talk of national economic trends in the year-end news as well. In keeping with nationwide trends, our single/two-family/townhome numbers continue to outperform last year's numbers at a breakneck pace - just look at pages two and four of this month's report for details!

DESIGN REVIEW

Design review is required for certain projects within the City's urban design and historic preservation zoning overlays. The vast majority of these reviews are completed at the staff level, however certain types of projects require D/DRC review.

All applications for the Bailey Bill tax abatement program must be reviewed by the D/DRC per ordinance; you can learn more about the Bailey Bill and other preservation incentives here.

Land Development Reviews

Approval for Major Subdivisions and Major Site Plans is granted at the Planning Commission level, whereas Minor Subdivisions and Minor Site Plans are reviewed solely by staff for compliance with the Unified Development Ordinance (UDO). Major Subdivisions are subdivisions of lots where platting, construction, opening, or extension of at least one of the following occurs: new streets, improvement of existing streets, water or sewer facilities, storm drainage facilities, and other utilities. Major Site Plans propose at least one of the following: nonresidential development of 100,000 square feet or greater, multi-family development of more than 25 units, or the development of new principal uses and structures on a lot.

Paws for Preservation Calendar Sales Report

Did you know that representatives from the City's Historic Districts have begun collaborating in support of community-wide preservation efforts? They recently kicked off a fundraising effort to support preservation workshops that will help owners of historic homes confidently take on projects like preserving historic windows, repairing plaster, and repointing bricks!

More than 75 calendars featuring local pets and historic resources were sold in November and December, raising over $650 in funds for the coalition!

Calendar sales have closed for the year, but stay tuned for updates on CCHD's efforts!
